

BSc (Hons) Policing | MA Policing and Criminal Justice | MSc (Thesis only) in Policing

CALLING ALL OFFICERS AND POLICE STAFF looking to gain an academic qualification while working. We are seeking applications for the 2016-17 intakes on the below programs within the School of Law, Criminal Justice and Computing at Canterbury Christ Church University. All courses run in both Canterbury and Central London.

Our three-year part-time BSc (Hons) Policing program has been designed specifically with serving officers and police staff in mind, and recognises operational and support experience as a core part of learning. We aim to build on this invaluable experience and provide a detailed insight into the research and theory behind modern policing practice. The application deadline is Friday 22th July 2016

The MA Policing and Criminal Justice postgraduate program explores both the theoretical foundations of policing and criminal justice and the application of this knowledge to contemporary issues of crime, social control and justice. The application deadline is 8th July

The MSc by research in Policing is a new part-time program which offers a postgraduate qualification awarded on the final thesis, based on an empirical research study of a chosen area of policing. There will be an expectation to attend some sessions in London and Canterbury. The application deadline is 5th July

There will be information sessions held at Birkbeck University of London on Wednesday 11th May at 1100 - 1300 and Tuesday 7th June at 1100 - 1300. If you would like to attend or to find out more please contact katie.pocock@canterbury.ac.uk and Kizzie.mee@canterbury.ac.uk

If you chose to study on any one of these programs you will be given a timetable in advance to allow you to plan your work and academic commitments throughout the year.
